THE PRESENT

учитель ХЛУНОВСКАЯ Т.Ю.

Измайловская школа 1508
Москва 2020

I. Warm up. Guess what the film is going to be about (predicting the contents/ the problem).

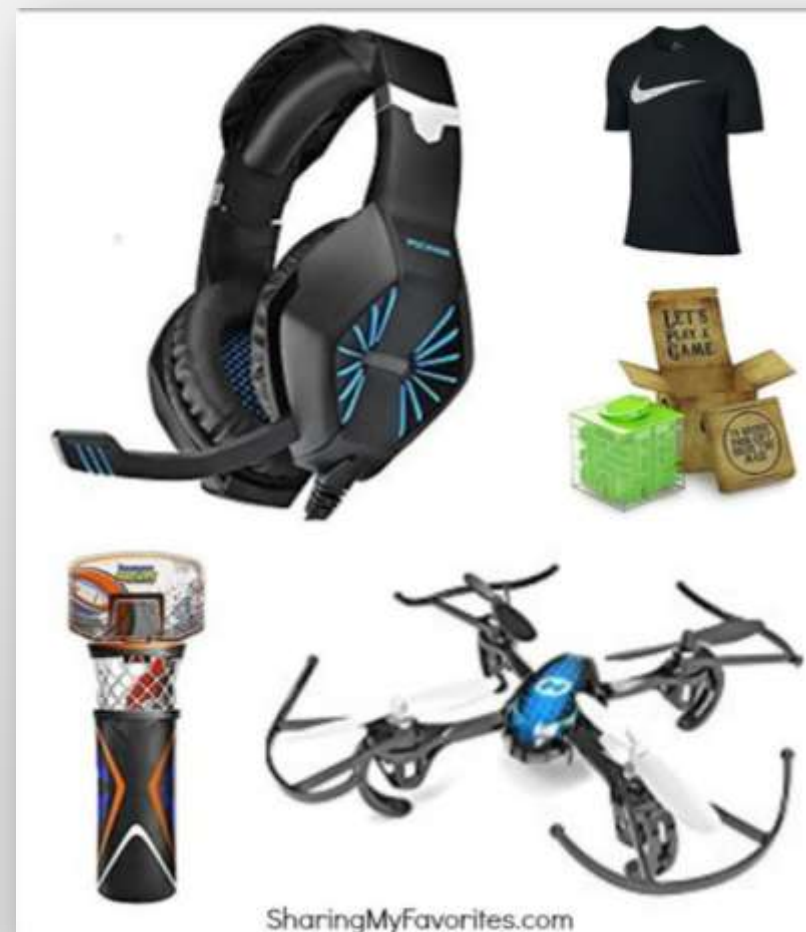

II. Vocabulary Practice. A Typical Teenager. What's he/she like? What adjectives are normally used to describe teenagers?

III. Speaking 1.

Exchange ideas about the best present for a teenage girl/boy.

Expressing an opinion:

I believe ...,

I'd say...,

Personally, I think...

In my opinion...

Agreeing:

That's right.

Well, I agree with you ...

Yes, I think that's true...

Good point.

Disagreeing politely:

Well, maybe, though ...

I'm not sure I agree ...

I know what you mean, but ...

Yes, that's true, but ...

III. Speaking 2.
Describe the boy in the picture.
What do you think of him?

III. Speaking 3.

Watch the film and say what you have learned about the boy's real character and actual behaviour.

IV. Writing.

Task1. Watch the film again. Summarise the story the film tells the viewer in 2–3 sentences.

Task 2. What is going to happen? How will the film end? Predict the rest of the film.

V. Speaking. Watch the end of the film.
Compare your ending with what you have seen.

VI. Speaking. Summing up.

- What is your opinion about teenagers now that you have seen the film? What do you feel like saying to us, adults?
- Describe the role of parents as you see it now.
- Do presents make a difference?
- What is the message of today's lesson?

Home task:

1. Writing. Make a list of arguments “for” and “against” giving animals as presents.

E.g. (+) It is a good way to learn about an animal.

(-) The owner must be prepared to care for them. It takes time and money.

2. Prepare to discuss the topic in class.
